

Update on Arrest:

No word from the NYPD or the NY Courts since my April 2020 arrest for writing TRUMP = PLAGUE in pink chalk on a boarded up building. My Fall court date to answer my desk appearance ticket passed uneventfully, as the NY Courts were closed due to the TRUMP PLAGUE, er, pandemic. No word, no rescheduling. All inquiries by me and my attorney are met with silence. It is as if I was never arrested. Am just a delusional black woman imagining police misconduct where there is none. Or as if I have been disappeared. I continue to push for my day in court. For any record of my arrest to be expunged. To witness/verify the destruction of my mugshot and fingerprints. The silence response is not deafening, just the familiar racist, misogynist bullshit we fight every day.
